This is not an AppStore app, the developer requires you to use the playstore to download his app. App is completely free and allows the user to download and preview (without downloading) their app. I recently got a new device (Samsung Galaxy S III) and I've realized that PlayStore apps don't appear in the app drawer in stock jellybean ROM's. If you can't view the app, check out this image: Does anyone know how to get apps to appear in the app drawer? A: Swipe apps to the top of your home screen. For me, the apps do not end up at the very top, I have to swipe to get them into the app drawer? A: Swipe apps to the top of your home screen.
